1. Applicant's election with traverse of Group I in the reply filed on July 31, 2007 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the grounds that the search and examination of both groups could be made without serious burden. This is not found persuasive because the two groups are classified in different areas and comprise materially different concepts and thus there would be serious burden on the examiner to examine both groups.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

2. Claims 3-16 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim.

3. Figure 44 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Art Unit: 1795

4. The Abstract of the Disclosure should be amended to include no more than 150 words.

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

7. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gyoten et al. (Gyoten) in view of Mizuno et al. (Mizuno)

Gyoten teaches a polymer electrolyte fuel cell including an electrode on a separator-see Figure 1 and Example 1. It is noted that a gas diffusion layer 4 in Gyoten comprises carbon particles having a diameter larger than the gas diffusion hole 8 present in the electrode. It is noted that the bottom portion of the hole is larger than the size of the opening midway down the length of the hole. The only claimed features not taught by Gyuoten are all of the claimed layers of claim 1 for two electrodes in the fuel cell. Mizuno teaches a solid polymer electrolyte fuel cell having dual electrodes on opposite sides of the electrolyte-see column 6, line 19 through column 9, line 12. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in this art at the time the invention was made to have formed the fuel cell of Gyuoten of the dual electrodes as taught in Mizuno including all of the claimed layers because the same produces a high output of electrical power.

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Bruck et al. and Mercuri et al. both disclose various components of a fuel cell with flow paths.

9. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to John S. Maples whose telephone number is 571-272-1287. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday, 6:30-3:00.
